Over a thousand tons of Sugar Cane wanted. Hunt's Sump works are running day and night, crushing 30 tons of cane every 24 hours. Their capacity is such that growers can get their cane worked up immediately on its being delivered at the mill, thus saving the necessary loss caused by letting it dry for a number of days which in many cases causes them to lose half their crop of sirup. A load of cane which will yield from twelve to twenty gallons of sirup, if worked up immediately will yield more than twice as much as if it is allowed to stand ten days.

Arrangements have been made for running a special train from here to the State Fair at Fond du Lac Tuesday, rive here at 10:15 p. m. The Northwestern company has fixed its rates at $4.10 for the round trip, the same to be sold Sept. 20th to 30th, and good until October 3d.

October. This will be its closing of the season. The show will draw a big crowd here.

of Janesville, the Supreme Court has given a final decision, which is adverse to the city, which will now have to pay —A party of about thirty of the young friends of Charlie and Corn Stanton surprised them, last evening, at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Stanton, in the Second ward.

—Patsy Griffin, who has been tarrying at the cup most of the time for a fortnight past, was so noisy last night that the Marshal had to collar him. After a brief but earnest struggle he was landed in the cooler, where he will sober.

—Mrs. Hand, a lady aged about eighty-five years, and who has lived at A. C. Ressigne's, in this city, for some time past, was this morning laid at rest. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Hodge, and the remains were taken to the town of Janesville for interment.

—The special State Fair train on its return trip from Fond du Lac last night was delayed by the breaking of a bolt in the trucks of the tender to the engine, shortly after the train had left Fort Atkinson. As a result it did not reach here until about 7 o'clock this morning. A delay was also caused to the morning train from the north, which followed it, making the mail about fifteen minutes late.

—The following are the members of the "Iron Mask" company, all of whom have now arrived except Mr. Fyffe, who

Kelley, Louis Miller, Miss Ada Trimbull, Miss Mollie Macdon, Miss Clara Baker.
Mr. Frank Carvor is the manager, and Samuel Alexander, the business agent.

—There was a lively time on North Main street last evening in which a number of well-known and ordinarily peaceable citizens participated. It all sprung up from one citizen tantalizing the driver of a fast horse about his speed, or rather lack of speed. Words led to blows, and further misunderstandings and even the peace-makers who tried to stop the fuss got to quarreling among themselves.
The seeds of discord were sown in the hearts of half a dozen. A goodly sized crowd gathered but peace was restored before any great amount of gore was wasted.

—One of our citizens lately wrote to Germany concerning some musical instruments. The foreign manufacturer has replied though some German-English scholar, who had evidently by the use of a dictionary framed carefully the letter of reply, but was also evidently unfamiliar with the Yankee vernacular.
In this reply he says, "Your postal order in payment of the enclosed feature is received. I fabricate the following articles, but fabricate none of the other articles, you inquire about. I hope that the fabrication I send you may result in your utter contentment." American scholars have only a book knowledge of German, and who think they can translate English into excellent German by the aid of a dictionary, have also in this letter amiror in which they can see themselves as others see them.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE OPERA THIS EVENING.

The Paine-Brocolini comic opera company are to appear at the Opera house this evening, the company embracing two stars, Matilda Scott-Paine, and Signor C.
Brocolini, supported by an excellent company of artists. The comic opera "Fan-chette" is to be given, followed by "The Rose of Auvergne," a laughable operetta.
Of Brocolini, the New York Herald says "he has a strong, manly, sympathetic voice," and the Evening Post says "he is sure to become popular." Of the other great star there are also many press notices from which to quote. That from the Detroit Post is a fair sample:

Matilda Scott-Paine's charming presence, her fine dramatic action, and her beautiful vocalism are in themselves sufficient to please the most captious critics. The lady sings as if her whole soul was wrapped up in her work; yet her effects were rendered in that simple, unaffected, yet aristocratic manner that never fails to elicit the praise due to a vocalist of the highest order.

"THE MAN IN THE IRON MASK."

This great historical play is to be given at the Opera house next Monday and Tuesday evenings, by that promising and popular young actor, Frederic Bryton, supported by an excellent company. Most of the members of the company have now arrived, and are preparing to open the season here. They are a fine appearing company of ladies and gentlemen, and there is every reason to expect much from them. Last season there were several plays in their repertory, but that of "The Iron Mask" proved to be the most popular and pleasing of any, and this season it will be the leading play with them.

The St. Paul Pioneer Press says:

Mr. Bryton has gone up another rung on the ladder of fame. His representation of "Gaston" in the "Man in the Iron Mask" last night was probably the noblest piece of acting ever seen in Winnipeg.
As the lightly young, gallant, and attractive, but later on, when the Nemesis has overtaken him, and the vigor and flush of youth give way to the pallor and decay induced by his grinding sufferings, his personation is grand. The play is thrilling and impressive, and was exceedingly well put on, the costumes being good and the principal support excellent. Of course the chief interest centered around the mysterious figure whose features were veiled by that fearful mask, "The Iron Mask" is the best piece that has yet been put on the boards, and ought to bear a repetition.
